My Dear Parishioners:

Greetings...You may have already heard, and if not, the provincial restrictions that were announced on Thursday, November 19th, with no in-person religious services. This has been extended to Friday, January 8th, 2021. That means for us as Catholics, all masses with parishioners in attendance are still cancelled until Jan. 8th. It is sad that our Advent and Christmas Season liturgies are cancelled. One of the parishioners said there was no Easter last April and now there is no Christmas too.

I look forward to the day next year when we can gather and celebrate together our liturgies and parish community events with less restrictions; and that the COVID virus will not have the impact as it is now, personally and globally for all peoples of the world.

A reminder, that the office will be closed this week on Wednesday and Thursday; and also closed on Fridays due to COVID-19.

Confessions are still being heard on Wednesdays, 1:00pm – 2:30pm and Saturdays, 10:00am – 11:00am.

I ask you to pray for the repose of the soul of Sheila Taylor who passed away earlier this week.

Yours in Christ,
